

Range of multiple seats both independent and modular. The seat and backrest are made from curved and perforated steel plates with an epoxy paint finish. Both are provisioned with a posterior reinforcement of textured and anodized aluminum. The beam is made from a cold laminated steel tube measuring 120x50 mm with an epoxy paint finish. The legs and the optional armrests of this bench are made from textured and anodized foundry aluminum. The seat, backrest and armrests can optionally be made from textured and anodized foundry aluminum to be equipped for outside use.

Accessories and options: Bench table with a solid core structure measuring 490x390 mm. Polyurethane cushions PUR with a thickness of 30 mm which can be upholstered according to the fabrics and colors in the sample chart.