

*Continuous bench of 2 to 4 units without backrest.
The seat area is configured in a single continuous block framed by polished and anodized aluminium sections and with a long black synthetic leather upholstered cushion.
The bench legs and side armrests are in polished and anodized cast aluminium.
The continuous bench design arises as a development of the design guidelines of the bench.
With this supply the range covers the varied needs of a multifunctional setting in which simple and balanced solutions are required.*