

Multifunctional table with great solidity and stability in its construction. The 60 Ø mm steel tube frame is complemented with the textured and anodized aluminium corner brackets that support the tabletop and optimize the interior useful space of the table, making it more comfortable and ergonomic. Table for meetings or libraries with an elegant and thoughtful design in order to blend into the widest variety of settings.

Laminated table top with 25 mm varnished beech wood edges. Table top colour according to catalogue chart.

Elegant anodized and textured aluminium corner brackets to form the joint between the feet and the table top.

60 mm Ø, steel feet equipped with levelling blocks, with finishes in chrome or epoxy paint.